Congratulations to the graduating classes of 1959 upon their attainment of twelve years of basic education. Although this achievement may be a goal in life for many, let not it be your final goal in the field of education.

Never before in the history of mankind has there been as much trial and error experimentation and research. This must continue until man conquers the universe. This will be done and done by our present teenagers, of which you are a member. So place your aims and goals in space and attempt to conquer them throughout your life.

Sincerely,

Reyton W. Holaday

Witnessed by: Edwin Jay Bell

Dateline: August 2, 1968. While flying around in my helicopter I decided to drop in on some of the graduating class of 1959 and here is what I found.

Eddie Bell and Roger Busby are wealthy banking tycoons and line their coats with hundred dollar bills.

Bill Jones and Richard Wood are big game hunters especially hunting for little dears.

Ruth Lange is a prominent astrologist who is off to Mars hunting for the cute little man she spotted through her telescope.

Mike Waller is doing quite well with his champion hogs. Probably his success is due to his title "Champion Hogs waller in Mike Waller's Waller!"

Lloyd Lewsader is in the insurance and his cute little secretary is Mabel Miller!!!

Aunt Frances and Aunt Sara (the Smith girls) aren't doing so well with their candy store as news got around they had the habit of substituting ground glass for bonbon fillings.

Russell Porter is a big Texas oil man and his advertising agent is Kenneth Palmer.

Hugh Rhode is teaching the Tango to Tiny Tots in Toledo and his cute little secretary is Judy Smith who teaches them when Hugh is out inspecting his cotton plantations overseen by John Robinson.

Bill Waltz and Don Watson are traveling as coach and manager to an all girls basketball team.

Charles Strode and Jerry Redmon were doing quite well with their trained fleas until they escaped one night and now they have the only dog whose fleas can play the Star Spangled Banner.

Larry Tomaw and his imaginary imp, Picaro, are designing clothes in Chicago for such ladies as Mrs. Joyce Witt Dornblaser whose husband is mayor of Chicago.

Linda Williams lives on a 500 acre farm with her husband Larry Kincaid.

Our own Mary Overton is Dean of a Girls school in the east.

As for me I'm busy flying my helicopter helping Ruth look for the little man from Mars and I hope I find him first.

All Photography in This Annual by Benjamin

Lyn,

Like you I hardly know where to begin. Remember the fights we had when we were small and the time Midnight sent me flying on Jenny's bone. Ouch! Also the time Buck nearly threw me over the fence and the time a pheasant scared Blue Moon and you went down one side and me down the other, but we did manage.

Also our first double date together, 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8, stop counting. Also the time we chased possums with a ball bat and flyswatter and the night we drank a half gallon of milk and all those "burnt" cheese sandwiches. Of course we mustn't forget the trap medal and the expressions "hoos" nor the night we went to the intersection.

Now this year well this is our next to the last together. I hope next year will be half the riot this one was. The night we ate pizza and ah "how you loved it," the rides to the intersection, our class play, "ouch, help me somebody quick," and we mustn't forget the holiday party we had. Also the slumber parties we went to and some of those pictures. The night we tried to play yukon and the night we sat on the seats and stared at everyone at the drive-in. Also all the band contests and 1st.

Best of luck to you and Bob, even tho' there are a few difficulties such as an inch or two in height, Oh well!! Have fun horse-riding Sunday and keep under control so you can stay in the saddle.

Love your good and all the rough times we have had in the 9th hr. study hall. You had better be careful in the show from now on for you never know who is watching

you. Be good (if possible).
